

City Giving Day – 25th September - Let's Celebrate!

On 25th September 2018 we are joining up with the rest of the City to Celebrate City Giving Day!

Championed by the Lord Mayor of London hundreds of businesses in the City are taking part by celebrating and promoting the fantastic work they have achieved, and continue to achieve, with the charities and communities they support.

Giving Time, Supporting People is the theme for City Giving Day, with many companies choosing to volunteer or raise money/awareness for the charities that they care about including the Lord Mayor's Appeal charities: LSO Discovery Programme, Music in Hospitals and St Paul's Cathedral Music Outreach.

We will be celebrating and promoting our work with charities and the community by.....

What:
Where:
When:
Why:

This is a chance for all of us to get stuck in. We'll be taking photos and tweeting about all the work we are doing using #CGD so we can join up on line with the rest of the City. Please join us!!!

For more information please contact: .....

Notes

- The current Lord Mayor is Alderman Charles Bowman, the 690th Lord Mayor of the City of London
- City Giving Day is a Lord Mayor's Appeal initiative and will continue to run every year led by each successive Lord Mayor of the City of London
- On City Giving Day, Lord Mayor, Alderman Charles Bowman will be visiting organisations throughout the Square Mile to hear stories of their inspirational work and their outstanding City community programmes
- It is possible to share your stories and achievements on social media using the hashtag #CGD